

There's Lots more Opera* to come

If you're enjoying Longwood Opera's production of The Elixir of Love, be sure to attend our Summer Concert Series. The first performance is in just a few weeks.

Longwood Opera 23rd Annual Summer Concert Series

Tuesdays at 7:30 pm

Christ Episcopal Church
1132 Highland Avenue Needham, MA

July 9: An Evening of Opera	August 6: An Evening of Gilbert & Sullivan
July 16: Broadway Melodies	August 13: More Operatic Scenes
July 23: An Evening of Opera Scenes	August 20: More Broadway Melodies
July 30: Veni, Vede, Verdi - a special evening to celebrate Verdi's 200th Birthday	August 27: Final Gala Night of Opera

and Broadway and Gilbert & Sullivan and...*

Summer Season Pass: Adults $50; Senior/Students/Children $35
Single admission at the door: Adults $8; Senior/Students/Children $6
www.longwoodopera.org

Longwood Opera teams up with the

SONS OF LIBERTY FESTIVAL

The Sons of Liberty Festival celebrates the 230th anniversary of the Boston Tea Party, and the independence and courage of Boston's residents, with music performed by local musicians and their friends. We are presenting 27 concerts, over 10 days in 2 churches, from July 12 to 21. Stars of Longwood Opera will kick-off our event. For all the details visit our facebook page at:
<https://www.facebook.com/pages/Sons-of-Liberty-Festival/382141345240538>

STARS OF LONGWOOD OPERA

A Gala Evening of Opera

July 13 & 20 at 8 pm

Church of the Covenant
67 Newbury Street Boston
<http://www.cotcbos.org/>

Longwood Opera performers Ethan Bremner, Stephanie Mann, Sophie Michaux, Sara Michale Smith, Gary Thies, Martha Warren and Tom Weber, accompanied by Music Director Jeffrey Brody, will present a concert of operatic selections by Gounod, Mozart, Offenbach, Puccini, Rossini and Verdi. Tell your friends. Don't miss out.

